Counselor's Currents

Juniors ~ November To-Do List:

- Stay on track to meet college admission requirements.
- Get involved in extracurricular activities.
- Focus on your career interests.
- Research colleges that interest you.

CAMPUS VISITS - Why book a visit?

Would you buy a car without a test drive? The same applies to college! College is a huge investment of your time and money. It's important to experience a campus first-hand to see if it's a place you can call home for the next two to four-plus years.

What's a typical visit like?

You will get a campus tour of the cafeteria, student union, dorms, and classrooms. You may also meet with professors, coaches, financial aid experts, and others.

What should you ask? EducationQuest has got your back on this one. Go to educationquest.org then to GoVisitQuestions.pdf for a list of questions!

The questions include things to ask the admissions representative, the financial aid counselor, the tour guide, and most importantly, things to ask YOURSELF after your campus visit!

Pro tips for a top-notch visit:

1. Book early.
2. Take notes and pics.
3. Chat with students.
4. Explore the area.

Seniors! A reminder of what to do this fall...

There's A LOT going on right now with the financial aid and college admission processes, but don't get overwhelmed! Here's a recap of tasks you should complete this fall to stay on track to college.

- Visit your top college choices.
- Apply to your top colleges.
- Create FSA IDs at StudentAid.gov (you and one parent)/
- Retake the ACT.

Use EducationQuest tools to:

- Find Nebraska-based scholarships via ScholarshipQuest.
- Update your Activities Resume.
- Research colleges using College Profiles.
- Sign up for Countdown to College email tips.
- Use Reality Check to match your future career with your desired lifestyle.
